Thampanoor police with Theruvoram NGO rehabilitate destitute in city

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @TPuram

A three-day event to rehabilitate the homeless and mentally unstable, who are seeking shelter in major areas of the city, including the Secretariat, Thampanoor, Bakery Junction, Manorama Junction and KSRTC/private bus stand premises, was inaugurated by additional rural SPMK Zulfiker at 11am on Saturday. The destitute were given a bath and groomed as part of the programme.

The volunteers of the Theruvoram NGO and other social workers started the work as early as 5am. Of the around 30 individuals who were rehabilitated on Saturday, some had not taken a shower for years and had multiple sores on them.

Of them, three who showed a willingness to be relocated to a shelter home were shifted to an institution in Kottayam. Those who wanted to get back home were given transportation charges. The drive will continue on Sunday as well.

"Post-Covid, the public hold the misconception that most homeless are infected by the virus. This initiative aims to make people aware that the destitute are one among us and should not be alienated," said an official.

Thiruvananthapuram regional SP, inspector of police (Thampanoor) Prakash R, Palakkad ASI Reena Jeevan, social workers Theruvoram Murukan and Bombay Jose, vlogger Mukesh M Nair, Shiju Abu Bakker, Jeevan R P, Vinayachandran, Sheeja, Adv Noufal, Kollam Ganesh, Neyyattinkara Suresh, Nisa Kazhakoottam, and Johnny Thiruvananthapuram are the ones behind the successful implementation of the programme.

Post-Covid, the public hold the misconception that most homeless are infected by the virus. This initiative aims to make people aware that the destitute are one among us — An official

- The NGO has rescued nearly 30,000 homeless beggars and destitute.
- It has organized various drives in coordination with the police and local authorities to rehabilitate the homeless and mentally unstable.
- The NGO has mainly focused on accommodating individuals with psychiatric disabilities, bedridden, and elderly individuals.
- The organization has a two storey building which accommodates 30 homeless individuals.

CONCLUSION AND LEARNINGS

The study tour was a memorable and enriching experience for all of us. We learned a lot about the diversity and unity of India, the history and culture of different regions, the ecology and biodiversity of different ecosystems, the development and governance of different states, and the challenges and opportunities of different sectors.

Some of the key learnings from the tour are:

- India is a land of contrasts and contradictions, where the ancient and the modern, the rural and the urban, the rich and the poor, the traditional and the contemporary coexist and interact.
- India has a rich and glorious history and culture, which is reflected in its monuments, temples, forts, palaces, museums, art, literature, music, dance, festivals, cuisine and customs.
- India has a diverse and rich ecology and biodiversity, which is manifested in its forests, mountains, rivers, lakes, deserts, islands, coasts, wetlands, grasslands and wildlife.

The study tour was a valuable and enjoyable part of our cadre training programme. We are grateful and thankful to the MCR HRDIT, the Course Director, the Study Tour Committee, and Officials for making this tour possible and successful. We are also thankful to our fellow participants for making this tour fun and friendly. We hope to apply and share our learnings and experiences from this tour in our future work and life. We also hope to visit these places again and explore more of our incredible India. Jai Hind!
