

1. Revolt of 1857

Debate Motion:

This House believes that the Revolt of 1857 should be viewed as the first war of Indian independence.

2. Moderates vs Extremists in the INC

Debate Motion

This House believes that the split between Moderates and Extremists bolstered the Indian national movement instead of weakening it.

3. Swadeshi and Boycott Movement

Debate Motion:

This House believes that Swadeshi was mainly a political symbol rather than an economic revolution.

4. Revolutionary Nationalism

Debate Motion:

This House believes that revolutionary violence weakened the larger fight for Indian independence.

5. Gandhi's Political Philosophy

Debate Motion:

This House believes that Gandhian philosophy conflicts with modern governance.

6. Non-Cooperation & Civil Disobedience

Debate Motion:

This House believes that Gandhi was justified in withdrawing mass movements after violent events

7. Subhas Chandra Bose & the INA

Debate Motion:

This House believes that the INA played a larger role in Indian independence than is often recognized.

8. Colonial Constitutional Reforms (1861–1935)

Debate Motion:

This House believes that British constitutional reforms in India were intended to hinder, rather than facilitate, genuine self-rule.

9. Partition of India & Princely States

Debate Motion:

This House believes that the Partition of India could have been prevented.