Be the Change
that you want to see in the world

— Mahatma Gandhi

From the Vice Chairperson & Director General's Desk

Dear Officer Trainees,

A warm welcome to you all.

Your selection to the prestigious Group II Services marks the beginning of a challenging and rewarding career in public service. As future leaders of the State administration, you will play a vital role in governance and socio-economic development of the state.

Telangana's strong commitment to inclusive development and social justice places upon you the responsibility to uphold constitutional values, ensure equity and fairness in administration and serve the people with empathy, professionalism and transparency.

Your unwavering commitment to probity, impartiality and ethical decision-making—particularly in complex and demanding situations—will determine the credibility of public institutions and sustain citizens' trust in the administration.

Effective governance is ultimately founded on public trust. Your decisions, conduct and responsiveness as civil servants will shape citizens' confidence in the State. You are therefore encouraged to adopt a citizen-centric approach, promote efficiency and innovation in service delivery, and ensure that government programmes result in tangible and meaningful outcomes at the grassroots level.

It is in this context; the Foundation Course has been designed. Through academic inputs, field exposure and interactive learning, the programme aims to equip you with the knowledge, skills, leadership capabilities and ethical grounding required for effective, responsive and people-centric governance.

I wish you a meaningful and enriching Foundation Course and a successful career dedicated to delivering good governance and improving the quality of life of the people of Telangana. I congratulate you on your meritorious selection and warmly welcome you to the noble service of the State.

May the words of the Father of the Nation guide and inspire you throughout your public service:

"The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others."

— Mahatma Gandhi

With best wishes,

*(Santhi Kumari, IAS)

CHAPTER-I

About Dr. MCR HRD Institute of Telangana

1. Training programs at MCR HRD IT

Founded in 1976 by the Government (United Andhra Pradesh), Dr. MCR HRD Institute has been supporting the Government's initiatives in capacity building for reforms, good governance, change management, and revamping delivery systems.

In addition to training programs for Government employees, both from Telangana State and from across the country, the Institute has been offering Combined Foundation Courses for All India Services Officers, Central Civil Services Officers, Military Engineer Services Probationers, etc.

As a part of "Training for All" program, sponsored by DoPT, Govt. of India the Institute has trained 5479 employees of Tribal Welfare Department. Under the same initiative, the Institute has imparted training to 6864 employees of Women Development & Child Welfare Department. On account of this, the Institute has emerged as a role model not only in Telangana State but also in the entire country.

The Institute regularly conducts training programs for Central Secretariat Officers sponsored by ISTM, Lok Sabha Secretariat, Civil Service Officers from Bihar, Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh, Odisha, Mizoram, Nagaland, Jharkhand, National Capital Territory of Delhi and other States. The Institute also conducts training programs for Defence Establishments, NHRC, Khadi Village Industries Board etc.

During the period of Covid-19 Pandemic, the Institute successfully rolled out more than 100 online training programs and covered over 15,000 Officers, right from the top to the lowest rungs of administrative hierarchy. In addition, the Institute trained over 1,00,000 field staff from different districts of the Telangana State, in a Blended Learning Format, during the last three years, in 15 soft skills and domain-specific modules (COMMIT), sponsored by DoPT, Government of India. The Institute has also been mentoring a number of States, from across the country, to train the trainers for the COMMIT program and, as a result, the Telangana State now ranks number 1 in imparting online training in the country.

The Institute also conducts Indian Technical and Economic Cooperation (ITEC) Training Programs, Sponsored by Ministry of External Affairs, GoI. The Themes of the training programs includes "Journalism & Public Relations", Media Management, Entrepreneurship – Creating Successful startups, Foreign Trade & Investment, etc. for the delegates from South Africa, Vietnam, Sri Lanka, Egypt, Guyana, Tanzania, Nepal, Bangladesh, Ethiopia, Kenya, Russia, Ghana, Thailand, Mauritius etc.,

2. Faculty Resources and Centres:

The Institute's faculty resources include senior All India Service Officers and also eminent faculty from various Institutes of higher learning like Indian School of Business, University of Hyderabad, Administrative Staff College of India, NALSAR University of Law, TISS, Northeastern University of Illinois, IMF, National University of Singapore etc.

The Institute's training activity is being organized through the following Faculty Centres:

- i) Training Management Unit (TMU)
- ii) Centre for Law & Public Administration (CLP)
- iii) Centre for International Relations & Security (CIS)

- iv) Centre for Finance and Economics (CFE)
- v) Centre for Disaster Management & Sustainable Development (CDS)
- vi) Centre for Management & Behavioural Studies (CMB)
- vii) Centre for Telangana Studies (CTS)
- viii) Centre for Information Technology (CIT)

The Institute believes in decentralized training and, towards this, it has established a network of Regional Centers for Training to provide training to field level functionaries.

3. Accreditation:

The Institute has been accredited as उत्कृष्ट (Excellent), under the Capacity Building Commission's National Standards as assessed by National Accreditation Boards of Education and Training.

The Institute got the prestigious SKOCH Governance Silver Award at the 68th SKOCH Summit held on November 30th, 2020, for offering Virtual Training Programs, especially the Combined Foundation Course, which was one of its kind.

The SKOCH Group, which is India's leading Think Tank dealing with socio-economic issues, has instituted India's highest independent civilian honors and awards in the fields of Governance, Finance, Technology, Economics and Social Sector.

4. Samridhi Journal

The Institute publishes a Bi-annual online journal Samridhi by inviting articles on issues related to governance, public policy, public administration, good governance practices and so forth from interested civil servants, academicians, civil society members etc. The Institute has published Four issues over the past two years.

5. Vision

To emerge as a World Class Institution of learning in the art and practice of Citizen Centric Governance.

6. Mission:

To strive towards sustainable excellence in sharing constantly updated knowledge and skills with the personnel serving the Government and to promote capacity building and competencies among them.

7. Our Commitment:

To be responsive to the Officer Trainees' needs and aspirations.

To be impartial, principles-centered and value-driven.

To provide exposure to the best possible teaching material and Resource Persons to facilitate the Officer Trainees' professional, intellectual, and emotional growth.

To provide the Officer Trainees with an environment that encourages enquiry and freedom of thought, yet imbued with discipline, to foster intellectual growth and an all-round development.

It is mandatory to fill-in the evaluation of the academic sessions, on a daily basis. We request the Officer Trainees to fill-in the online form in a responsible and constructive manner. Providing regular feedback is an index of your commitment to the Combined Foundation Course and goes a long way in enriching its quality.

9. PHYSICAL TRAINING

Attainment of physical fitness is an essential element of an officer's personality. The Course will introduce you to the world of physical wellbeing with a view to ensure that it becomes a part of your daily make-up for the rest of your life. A healthy mind in a healthy body is what we would like to strive for.

The day begins with a mandatory morning activity i.e., PT/Meditation/Yoga from 6.30am – 7.30am (on all working days). No OT will be allowed to stay in hostel room after 06.30 am.

The prescribed dress for PT is Institute T-shirt, white socks and sports shoes.

10. GAMES & SPORTS

The Institute has state of art facilities for various sorts and games like

- Lawn Tennis,
- Badminton,
- Table Tennis,
- Football, besides an international standards swimming pool
- Well-equipped Gymnasium for ladies and gentlemen separately.

OTs are advised to make optimal use of these facilities. Trainees are encouraged to participate actively in games and sports. OTs are encouraged to select a sport of their choice and practice it every day for at least one hour.

CHAPTER-IV

Clubs & Societies

Introduction:

Each Club / Society will have an Executive Committee comprising a Secretary and Five members, apart from the Director General's nominees. For conducting their activities, the Clubs and Societies will collect contributions from the fellow OTs. The Officers, Faculty Members and Staff, and their families, are invited to join the Officer Trainees in all the activities of the Clubs and Societies.

The Clubs and Societies take up various indoor and outdoor activities which are not only entertaining but also enrich the Institute's campus life. These activities will also provide an excellent medium to the Officer Trainees for self-expression and self-development.

The Institute places great emphasis on organizing and participating in these activities and they form an important basis for the 'Best Award for Sports' at the end of the Course. All the Officer Trainees are, therefore, expected to participate actively and make optimal use of the facilities as per their choice and disposition.

A brief outline in respect of the objectives of each of the Clubs and Societies is given below.

A. Officers' Club

The objectives of the Club are as under:

- To organize and provide sports and recreational pursuits for the members of the Club
- To promote and provide facilities for indoor and outdoor games
- To organize quizzes, talks, etc. relating to the Club's spheres
- To organize formal and informal get-togethers in association with other clubs & societies:

- To contribute to the esprit de corps among the Officer Trainees.
- To ensure hygiene and cleanliness in the kitchen and dining hall.
- To maintain a live rapport with caterer about the menu quality of food, service quality etc.
- To Organize various cultural programs during the training period and encourage the fellow OTs to participate actively in various cultural events:

B. Social Service Club

As a responsible officer, every Officer Trainee is supposed to contribute a lot for the social sector. The members of the Club visit social welfare institutions like orphanages, slums, old age homes, etc. to understand the problems of specific disadvantaged sections of the society.

The Club undertakes several initiatives to take care of the employees of the Institute as well as the residents of the local community.

In addition, the Club organizes Blood Donation Camps.

C. House Journal Society:

The House Journal Society is established with the main idea of encouraging creative writing and other skills among the Officer Trainees.

The objectives of the Society are:

- To promote literary activities through creative writing.
- To provide a forum for free expression and interaction with one another.
- To develop an aptitude for editing and other aspects of journalism.
- To develop latent artistic talents and cartooning skills.
- The Club publishes a House Journal, carrying articles on various subjects.

Combined Foundation Course for Group – II Service Officers of Telangana August 31st to September 19th –2026 (Batch II-A)

CHAPTER-V

Code of Conduct

I. Introduction

Good manners and etiquette lend confidence and charm to an officer's personality. They help smoothen the sharp edges of authority and ease the course of personal relations. The principles underlying the form and behavior suggested in the following pages are courtesy, politeness, and consideration for others.

The issues covered are important to an officer's life, both during his / her probation and in the later stages of his / her career. A major part of code of conduct is of immediate relevance for life at the Institute.

It is expected that the Officer Trainees would go through this set of instructions and use the guidelines / tips for displaying dignified, courteous, and civilized behavior on all occasions.

II. Identity Cards

The Officer Trainees are issued identity cards for the duration of the Course. This identity card has to be carried by the Officer Trainees at all times, both within and outside the campus. The identity cards will also serve as lapel cards.

It is compulsory to display the cards during working hours, in classes, in the Mess, and on all formal occasions.

Entry into the campus shall be permitted by Security only after identity card is shown.

III. Punctuality

Punctuality forms the basic fulcrum around which discipline revolves. It is expected that OTs will reach the venue of any scheduled event, academic or otherwise, ten minutes ahead of time and will be seated in the allotted place / position at least five minutes before the event. Attendance will be noted according to seating arrangements. Arrival after 15 mins for the class will be considered as absent for the duration of the session.

Late arrivals are not permitted to enter the classroom and must view the telecast in a different hall. It is expected that the OTs will not give any occasion to remind them of it during the Combined Foundation Course.

Serious violations, including unauthorized absence and habitual tardiness, may lead to a memo and disciplinary action

IV. Behavior

The Institute expects the highest standards of behavior and decorum befitting of an Officer Trainee, both inside and outside the Institute. Officer Trainees to read the Code of Conduct manual and they should ensure:

- No use of electronic gadgets on academic premises marked as no - gadget zones unless permitted.
- Maintain proper turnout.
- Adhere to the professional code of conduct.
- Possession of banned substances such as liquor, cigars etc is strictly prohibited.

V. Discipline Policy

We expect full participation by the Trainees in all activities of the course. Any absence without explicit permission would be treated as "unauthorized absence from duty" and will be dealt with as per rules.

The range of penalties which may be imposed will be in the form of negative marking and / or penalty prescribed relating to Conduct and Discipline, or all. We sincerely hope that no such occasion would arise, which would compel us to resort to such drastic measures.

Some acts of indiscipline include:

1. Turning up late for mandatory session
2. Unauthorized absence from mandatory session
3. Turning up late in class/other scheduled activities/events
4. Unauthorized absence from class/ other scheduled activities/events
 - Conduct/behaviour unbecoming of an Officer (including turnout)
 - Wilful disturbance in class/other scheduled activities (Talking/ unruly behaviour or disturbance/ reading / sleeping)
 - Misbehaviour with the Institute staff

VI. Participation, Leave and Absence

All Course activities, including Classes, Morning Activity, Fitness, Sports and extracurricular activities are compulsory and constitute official duty for the Officer Trainees. No Officer Trainee shall absent himself / herself from any of these activities. Any unauthorised absence from these activities would be treated as dereliction of duty and will be dealt as per disciplinary rules.

No Officer Trainee shall absent himself / herself from morning activities on grounds of ill health without permission of Course Director, and without recommendation of the doctor. Those unable to do physical activities due to medical reasons, will come to the venue of the morning activities. and lend their moral support to their batch mates. Absence or irregularity in morning activities will be treated on par with absence from classroom activities and will invite disciplinary action.

All Officer Trainees are required to reside on the Campus during the entire duration of the Combined Foundation Course. Course activities have been designed in a seamless manner. Therefore, it would not be possible to grant any leave during the Course. Requests for leave will not be entertained. OTs shall not send any request over WhatsApp / SMS. Permission shall not be granted via WhatsApp / SMS. No Officer Trainee shall remain in the hostel rooms during class hours.

Requirements for PT / Games / Sports etc.

The Institute T-shirt are to be worn for PT / Yoga and compulsory sports/games activities and other track-suits and T-shirts will not be allowed for these activities.

The Institute has an all-weather swimming pool on campus. You are advised to get swimming costume of your size for swimming.

A pair of good quality jogging/running shoes with adequate cushioning is recommended.

VIII. Conduct in Class

The Officer Trainees are expected to be attentive and conduct themselves with due regard towards the Faculty and the fellow Officer Trainees. Questions addressed to Faculty Members / Guest Speakers should be clear, precise, and polite.

Mobile Phone Policy:

- OTs are strictly instructed not to carry mobile phones to the classrooms as well as to the PT sessions.
- If any OT is found carrying the mobiles it will be Confiscated and will not be returned until the completion of the course
- The Officer Trainees are required to keep their mobile phones in their in safe custody.
- Talking or whispering during a lecture not only disturbs the speakers but other Officer Trainees also.

The posture adopted while sitting in the classroom is extremely important. One should sit with the back upright, without slouching in the chair, either to the front or to the back. One's arms should not be crossed behind one's head while sitting. Thumping on table is not acceptable while applauding Guest Speakers.

The Officer Trainees are expected to remain standing after the lecture concludes till the Speaker leaves the class.

No eatables and beverages shall be allowed inside classrooms.

IX. Conduct in Hostels

- The Officer Trainees are expected to behave decently in the hostels at all times. Shouting, loud music, noisy parties / revelry, etc. must be avoided as it is a source of inconvenience and nuisance to others. As a consideration to other residents in the hostel, music after 10.00pm is to be heard only through ear-phones.

- All the electrical appliances shall be switched off before exiting the hostel rooms.
- Officer Trainees are advised that they are responsible for the safekeeping of their personal belongings.
- The Institute shall not be responsible for any loss or damage arising from improper upkeep of personal belongings by Officer Trainees.

X. Mess Etiquette

Dress code for Mess is Casual attire unless otherwise indicated by the Course Team.

During formal occasions in the mess, the Officer Trainees are expected to be present 05 minutes before the guests arrive to receive them and to see that no guest is left unattended. Move around freely and look after the guests. Do not leave the mess until after all the guests have left.

Unless on the Mess Committee, the Officer Trainees have no authority to reprimand a Mess employee. Even office-bearers on the Mess Committee are not to use intemperate language or conduct themselves in a manner not befitting of an Officer. They can report matters needing attention to the Secretary or a member of the Mess Committee. Please do not use intemperate language while making a complaint.

XI. Conduct in the Lounge

When the Officer Trainees enter the lounge, and there is a lady or a staff member present, they should greet them appropriately. When any lady or a staff member or a guest enters the lounge, the Officer Trainees should stand up and greet him / her.

The Officer Trainees should not sit in the lounge with their legs up on a table or a chair.

Do not fail to wish staff members, their spouses or senior guests.

The Officer Trainees should not form their own exclusive sections.

Avoid controversial subjects which may lead to a heated discussion.

While in conversation, do not interrupt a person who is talking.

Do not gossip about other people. It is said: "Cultured people talk about ideas, whereas, uncultured people talk about persons".

Do not disturb the lounge arrangement. In case it has been necessary to move the furniture, please rearrange it before leaving.

XII. General Conduct

Consideration for the feelings of others should be a dominant concern. This becomes even more important during outdoor programs like the Trek and the Village & ULB Visit. Conduct on these occasions should be such so as to instil confidence and trust amongst each other.

When dealing with Mess Staff, special care should be taken to ensure politeness.

Officer-like behaviour should be maintained outside the Institute as well, in dealing with shopkeepers, etc. and the public at large.

Spouses, friends or relatives of the Officer Trainees are not permitted to stay on Campus under any circumstances. Any violation of this will be considered as an act of gross indiscipline. However, the Officer Trainees can invite their families, after taking permission, for the Valedictory Program and they may be provided accommodation, subject to availability.

Keeping or consuming alcoholic drinks is strictly prohibited. Misconduct in an inebriated state will result in expulsion from the Course and severe action under Conduct Rules.

Smoking is prohibited on the Institute Campus.

The Officer Trainees are not permitted to keep private vehicles in the Institute.

Possession of personal firearms is strictly prohibited on the Campus.

The Institute places great importance on intellectual integrity and ethical conduct. Any dereliction during examination, quizzes, and written assignments will have serious consequences. Plagiarism will not be tolerated.

Redressal of grievances, if any, should be sought within the Institute. The Course team shall be the first level for grievance redressal. A direct representation to the Ministries of the Government of India or any authority outside the Institute, or venting out grievances on social media, without going through the proper channel, would be treated as insubordination and violation of Conduct Rules.

Sharing any information, photos, or videos related to the Combined Foundation Course or the Institute on social media platforms is strictly prohibited. This includes any content about the course curriculum, faculty, guest speakers, fellow trainees, or Institute facilities.

Violation of this policy will be considered a breach of confidentiality and may result in disciplinary action.

The Officer Trainees will stand up when they are introduced. Shaking hands on being introduced is quite normal but not with ladies unless the lady makes the first move. Otherwise, a 'Namaste' or an equivalent word in any other Indian language is the proper form.

Do not sit aloof but conduct a conversation with others. As educated young officers, the Officer Trainees would have sufficiently wide interests to start and sustain a conversation on many subjects.

Attention to personal hygiene and especially mouth odor is essential.

It is only natural that intelligent men and women have an opinion of their own. However, courtesy demands that if one has to disagree, do so politely and in an urbane manner. Remember, dissent is best expressed in a controlled and dignified manner, which is not insulting to the opposite party.

XIII. Do's and Don'ts

1. Do's

- Maintain dress code in the class rooms and dining hall.
- The Officer Trainee should maintain the identity cards on their person in the academic areas.
- We are an eco-responsible Institute working on the reduce-reuse-recycle model for water, energy and waste management.
- The Officer Trainees are requested to contribute to these initiatives during their stay on the campus.
- Use the resources of the Institute, namely, water, electricity, etc., judiciously. Switch off lights and fans, close windows and lock the rooms when you go out.
- Help in keeping the entire campus, including the hostels, clean and green.
- Leave the room keys at the reception before going to classes so that the rooms can be cleaned.
- Pay for availing laundry services.
- The main gate of the Institute will be closed by 11:00 PM. Hence, return well before time if you happen to go out.

2. Don'ts

- Do not throw waste anywhere, except in dust-bins.
- Do not use plastic disposables. Use of single use plastic is prohibited in the campus.
- Do not keep cash or valuables in the room.
- The Officer Trainees are advised not to approach the Institute to arrange cars for their personal use.
- The consumption of alcohol and smoking are strictly prohibited within the Institute premises.
- This policy extends to all areas of the campus, including hostels, classrooms, and recreational spaces.
- Any violation of this rule will be met with strict disciplinary action, potentially leading to expulsion from the course.
