May you carry forward from this Institute not only the knowledge and experiences gained during the CFC, but also a deep sense of purpose, responsibility and commitment to serving society.

On behalf of the Dr. MCR HRD Institute of Telangana and the entire CFC team, I extend our heartfelt congratulations and best wishes to each one of you for a successful, fulfilling and distinguished career in public service. Keep learning. Keep serving. Keep making a difference.

Beyond the Designation

D. Vinay Kumar
J.A. (TGPSC)

Being the General Secretary was an opportunity to look beyond an individual role and understand the responsibility of bringing a collective vision to life. There were ideas to explore, decisions to make and expectations to fulfil. The real satisfaction, however, came from watching different efforts gradually take shape as one publication. This experience taught me that leadership is often found in the unseen work—in connecting people, resolving challenges and keeping a shared purpose alive until the very last page

Seeing What Others Overlook

Training life moves quickly, with one activity giving way to another. Working on the journal encouraged me to pause and notice the details that might otherwise go unnoticed: a spontaneous conversation, a moment of encouragement, an unexpected achievement or the quiet dedication behind a successful event. I began to see that the real character of a training programme lies not only in its scheduled activities, but also in the little things that happen between them

Progress Behind the Scenes

Every publication has its share of unexpected hurdles, and ours was no exception. Changing plans, pending inputs and the challenge of bringing different elements together demanded patience and practical thinking. Each difficulty became an opportunity to find another way forward. This assignment reminded me that meaningful outcomes rarely emerge from a perfectly smooth process; they emerge when people remain resourceful, adaptable and committed despite the complications.

When Presentation Becomes Expression

I discovered that presentation is not merely about making a page attractive; it is about establishing its character. The choice of photographs, the arrangement of elements and the visual rhythm of each page influence how a reader experiences the content. Designing for our journal became an exercise in balancing aesthetics with purpose. It taught me to think of every page as part of a larger identity—one that reflects the spirit, diversity and aspirations of our batch

Connecting People and Ideas

One of the most rewarding aspects of this assignment was interacting with people whose experiences and perspectives differed from my own. Gathering contributions meant listening carefully, following up patiently and ensuring that different voices found a place in the larger narrative. It showed me that a publication can do more than present information: it can bring people into conversation and help a diverse group recognise the common ground they share.

Moments That Matter

Being part of the House Journal Club has been a memorable journey of creativity, teamwork, and learning. It gave me an opportunity to capture the spirit of our training—from classroom sessions and field visits to cultural celebrations and cherished friendships. Every moment had a story to tell, and every experience became a memory worth preserving. It is a privilege to contribute to a journal that brings our collective journey to life and keeps these precious memories alive for years_to_come.

Choosing What Deserves to Stay

My enriching three-week training at MCRHRD blended professional learning with holistic development. Sessions on service rules, governance, ethics, and office management enhanced my administrative skills, while sports, cultural activities, group discussions, and heritage tours fostered teamwork and camaraderie. This memorable experience strengthened my professional competence and enriched my personal outlook..

From Intention to Achievement

Ideas are exciting at the beginning, but their real value becomes visible in execution. Being part of the journal team taught me the importance of following through—checking progress, completing pending tasks and maintaining standards even when enthusiasm had to be supported by discipline. The final outcome represents many small acts of commitment that may never be individually noticed. For me, that is the essence of professional responsibility: doing one's part so that the larger objective can succeed as our collective journey to life and keeps.

A New Beginning: The Inaugural Ceremony

The Dasarathi Auditorium at Dr. MCR HRD Institute witnessed an atmosphere of anticipation and purpose as the inaugural ceremony marked the commencement of the Combined Foundation Course for the batch of Group-I, II, III Service Officers. The occasion symbolised a significant transition—from the achievement of competitive examinations to the larger responsibility of serving society as public servants.

In her address, Smt. Anitha Ramachandran, Assistant Director General, MCRHRDIT, highlighted the essential pillars of effective public service. Her words set the tone for a journey that goes beyond administrative knowledge and focuses on developing responsible, empathetic and forward-looking officers.

The Course Director, Prof. Madhavi Ravulapati, along with the Director General, presented an overview of the comprehensive training programme designed to equip the trainees with the knowledge, skills and values required for effective governance.

The ceremony emphasised that the upcoming sessions would extend beyond service rules and governance frameworks, nurturing professional competence, leadership qualities and personal character. The inaugural event thus served as more than a formal commencement—it marked the first step towards transforming aspiring officers into committed public servants.

Twenty-one days

Two eighty-one officers.

One shared journey of learning, laughter, and lasting memories.

As we stepped into the 21-day training programme at MCRHRDIT, we carried a blend of curiosity, excitement, and anticipation. We looked forward to gaining valuable administrative knowledge through classroom sessions on rules and procedures, while also exploring Telangana's rich heritage through trips, treks, and historical visits. Social activities, cultural evenings, and celebrations promised to make this journey even more memorable.

Beyond professional learning, we hoped to rediscover the joy of being students once again — reliving our college days through friendships, teamwork, laughter, and shared experiences. From early-morning PT and yoga to engaging sessions and outdoor adventures, we expected every day to offer something new, helping us grow not only as officers but also as individuals.

Little did we know that these 21 days would become much more than a training programme. We hoped to return with minds enriched by knowledge, hearts filled with memories, and bonds strengthened by shared experiences. Our journey was about becoming better public servants while enjoying the privilege of being students once again.

అధికారులను తీర్చిదిద్దే తరగతి గదులు

పొద్దు పొద్దున్నే... (Rise . Stretch, Begin)

At MCRHRD, our day as Group 2 officers begins at the not-so-friendly hour of 6:30 AM!! While our beds beg us to stay a little longer, we make our way to the PT ground with sleepy faces and reluctant footsteps. From warm-up exercises to yoga poses, our mornings are a blend of discipline, determination, and a little drama!

Beyond the stretches and exercises, these sessions remind us that a healthy body and a calm mind are essential for effective public service. As officers entrusted with important responsibilities, physical fitness and mental well-being help us remain resilient, patient, and focused. Our wonderful coaches made every session engaging and enjoyable, motivating us to push our limits despite our occasional morning laziness. What began as a battle against the alarm clock gradually became an energising start to our day. We learnt that discipline begins with showing up, even when the bed feels more inviting than the PT ground. After all, if we can conquer our sleepiness at 6:30 AM, we can surely take on the challenges of administration!

"From snooze buttons to sun salutations, we are stretching our limits, one sleepy morning at a time!"

Early Morning Stretching's by Officer Trainee's

Daily Yoga Sessions:

The classroom soon became more than a place to take notes. Distinguished speakers, experienced administrators and faculty members brought governance to life through their experiences, examples and practical insights. Each lecture opened a new window—on public responsibility, leadership, ethics, law, citizen service and the realities of administration. Their words challenged us to think beyond files and procedures and to remember the people behind every decision. We left many sessions with pages of notes, questions to reflect on and lessons that no textbook alone could teach.

Classes on Administrative Framework & Best Office Practices by the Distinguished Faculty

Our classroom sessions focused on the essential rules, procedures, and practical aspects that form the backbone of effective government administration. We gained a deeper understanding of Conduct Rules, CCA Rules, Fundamental Rules, compassionate appointments, and subordinate service regulations, helping us connect the theoretical framework with its practical application in day-to-day administration.

A significant part of the sessions was dedicated to understanding the practical mechanics of office functioning. We explored the District Office Manual, noting and drafting procedures, file management, and record maintenance, gaining insights into how systematic office practices ensure efficiency and prevent unnecessary delays.

The sessions also covered important aspects of financial and regulatory administration, including Treasury and Financial Rules, government expenditure and financial discipline, vigilance and ACB procedures, RTI provisions, leave rules, NPS, and pension matters. Practical discussions on handling court cases and preparing para-wise remarks further helped us understand the legal and administrative responsibilities of a government officer.

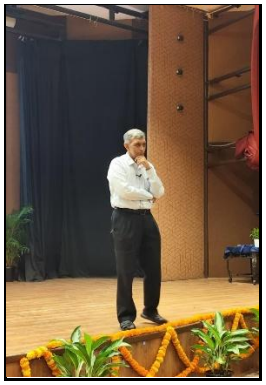

Overall, these sessions went beyond learning rules—they helped us understand how discipline, accountability, documentation, and sound procedure come together to make administration efficient, transparent, and citizen-oriented.

Telangana: A Journey of Identity, Heritage & Resilience The Telangana orientation by Dr. Lingala Pandu Ranga Reddy Sir offered valuable insights into the state's rich history, cultural heritage, and the struggles that shaped its identity. The session highlighted Telangana's spirit of resilience, self-respect, and unity, reflected in its vibrant festivals, literature, folk traditions, historic landmarks, and distinctive dialect.For us as budding public servants, the orientation served as a reminder that understanding Telangana's history, culture, and people is essential to serving the state with sensitivity, pride, and commitment.
Lecture on Ethical Governance and Anti-Corruption A highly insightful and thought-provoking lecture was delivered by Dr. Jayaprakash Narayan on Ethical Governance and Anti-Corruption. Drawing upon his vast experience in public life and governance, he highlighted the importance of integrity, transparency, accountability and ethical decision-making in public administration. The session emphasised that good governance extends beyond the implementation of rules and procedures; it requires a strong commitment to public interest, institutional responsibility and the values of democracy. His perspectives on systemic reforms, constitutional principles and institutional accountability offered valuable insights into the challenges of corruption and the need for sustainable governance reforms. The lecture was an enriching learning experience for the trainee officers, encouraging us to reflect on our responsibilities as public servants and the importance of upholding ethical standards in every aspect of administration.

Gender Sensitisation: Building an Inclusive Society

Our Course Director, Madhavi Ma'am, delivered an insightful session on gender sensitisation, highlighting the importance of equality, mutual respect, and inclusivity in society. The session emphasised that gender sensitisation goes beyond recognising differences between men and women; it involves challenging stereotypes, addressing unconscious biases, and ensuring equal opportunities for everyone, irrespective of gender.

As public servants, it is essential to approach every individual with dignity, fairness, and empathy. Gender-sensitive administration requires us to be mindful of our words, actions, and decisions, ensuring that government services and opportunities are accessible to all without discrimination.

Say No to Single-Use Plastic: Small Changes, Lasting Impact

The Director General (DG) Smt. Shanthi Kumari ma'am has conducted an insightful session on Single-Use Plastics (SUP), highlighting their advantages, disadvantages and harmful impact on the environment. She discussed sustainable alternatives to SUP and emphasised how simple changes in individual habits can collectively bring about significant environmental improvements.

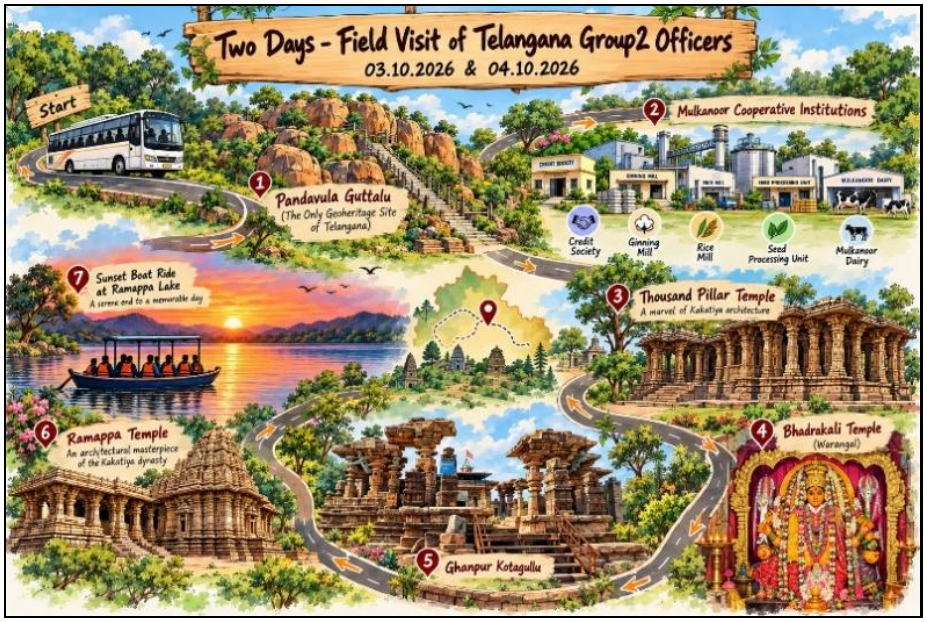

She also highlighted the initiatives taken by Dr. MCR HRD Institute to reduce the use of single-use plastics and sensitised trainee officers on adopting eco-friendly practices at both personal and office levels. Through the 3-4-4 principle, she offered a practical approach to bringing about meaningful change and encouraged us to translate awareness into action.

Our two-day study tour began with an insightful visit to the Mulkanoor Cooperative Rural Credit & Marketing Society Ltd., where we gained valuable insights into cooperative development and community-led rural empowerment. The journey continued through the historical and spiritual landmarks of Warangal — the magnificent Thousand Pillar Temple, Bhadrakali Temple and Warangal Fort — each reflecting the region's rich cultural heritage and architectural brilliance. We concluded the day at Bala Vikas Kendra, Kazipet, where a lively bonfire night filled with dumb charades, singing and dancing brought us closer as fellow officers. It was a perfect blend of learning, exploration and laughter.

The second day began on an adventurous note with a trek to Pandavula Gutta, where the scenic landscapes and rocky terrain offered a refreshing escape into nature. We then explored the historic Ghanpur Koṭagullu, followed by a visit to the magnificent Ramappa Temple, a remarkable testament to the architectural excellence of the Kakatiya dynasty. The experience concluded with a delightful boat ride on Ramappa Lake, where the serene waters and picturesque surroundings provided moments of relaxation and joy

A Heartwarming Initiative of Compassion and Social Responsibility

The officers of Group-I, Group-II and Group-III at Dr. MCR HRD Institute of Telangana (MCRHRDIT) came together to organise a blanket distribution programme as part of their commitment to social welfare and community service.

Beyond their roles as future administrators, the officers demonstrated that true public service extends beyond official duties and includes caring for the welfare of society. Their thoughtful gesture conveyed a powerful message that even a small act of kindness can bring hope, dignity and happiness into someone's life.

The initiative stands as a beautiful example of the motto: "Service to Humanity is Service to Society."

Our fellow officer trainees proved that training is not just about learning lessons, developing leadership, and preparing for responsibilities; it is also about building bonds, embracing teamwork, and creating unforgettable memories together. The flash mob was a beautiful expression of energy, coordination, confidence, and unity, showing that beyond official duties and professional commitments, we share a spirit that brings us together as one team. These are the moments that make our training journey truly special, turning fellow trainees into friends and ordinary days into extraordinary memories. Trained to lead, united by friendship, and born to create unforgettable moments!

Movie Night 🎦:

We also organised a movie night at the Dasarathi Auditorium, where the participants watched the popular film Venky. The screening created a lively and enjoyable atmosphere, with participants enthusiastically recreating memorable scenes and dancing along to the film's songs. The event provided a refreshing opportunity for everyone to relax, bond and create lasting memories together.

A Celebration of Culture, Colours & Togetherness: Bathukamma and Dandiya Night

The campus of Dr. MCR HRD Institute came alive with the vibrant spirit of tradition as we celebrated Bathukamma, the floral festival of Telangana. Dressed in beautiful traditional attire, women officers, including All India Services (AIS) officers, came together to celebrate the festival with great enthusiasm. The colourful Bathukammas, rhythmic folk dances and soulful songs created a festive atmosphere filled with cultural pride and sisterhood. The celebration culminated in the traditional immersion of Bathukamma in the campus pond, making it a memorable tribute to Telangana's rich heritage and customs.

The festive spirit continued with an energetic Dandiya Night, where officers dressed in traditional attire gathered for an evening of music, dance and unlimited fun. The beats of Dandiya songs brought everyone to the dance floor, turning the campus into a lively celebration of joy and togetherness. Dancing alongside batchmates, interacting with fellow officers and sharing laughter made 8the evening truly special.

More than just celebrations, these occasions gave us an opportunity to connect beyond classrooms, strengthen bonds across batches and departments, and create memories that will last long after the training concludes. From the grace of Bathukamma to the energy of Dandiya, it was an unforgettable celebration of culture, camaraderie and the beautiful spirit of togetherness.

YOU CAN SAY NO TO MARRIAGE

"Rethinking Marriage, Individual Choice and Social Responsibility"

In India, we are trusted to choose our education, our careers, and our cities, yet the marriage conversation inevitably bypasses "What do you want?" and jumps straight to "When are you getting married?". For generations, marriage has been enforced not as a personal relationship, but as a compulsory milestone of adulthood. It is time to shatter the illusion and ask the only question that matters: is marriage a social obligation, or a personal choice?

THE OBLIGATION TRAP: SYSTEM OVER CEREMONY

Marriage is heavily romanticised, but strip away the ceremony and it reveals itself as a rigid system. It is an intricate web of shared finances, family obligations, and endless compromises. Entering this machinery simply because "everyone does it" is a profoundly dangerous gamble. A reluctant partner quickly becomes a trapped individual, breeding a silent unhappiness that fractures two lives and two families. You cannot sustain a lifelong system on the fuel of societal expectations alone.

> "A reluctant partner quickly becomes a trapped individual, breeding a silent unhappiness that fractures two lives and two families."

BEYOND THE ROMANCE: THE CURRENCY OF INDEPENDENCE

Romance does not pay the bills. At its core, marriage is an economic partnership demanding shared responsibility for housing, healthcare, and ageing parents. In today's demanding professional world, financial compatibility matters enormously, and love cannot be the only conversation before the wedding. We are witnessing the rise of the individual—people who define themselves by their ambitions, friendships, and personal goals, rather than inherited family roles. Guarding your financial independence or preferring your own company is a mark of sharp self-awareness, not selfishness.

THE NEW DEMOGRAPHIC: CONNECTION WITHOUT CONFORMITY

Society enforces a ruthless biological clock: start looking at twenty-five, panic by thirty. But emotional maturity refuses to abide by a birthday. Two emotionally unprepared people can share a home and still die of loneliness. Conversely, an unmarried person can build a fiercely connected and fulfilling life through community and purpose. Furthermore, as India's demographics shift and sustainability becomes critical, having a child is a profound resource responsibility, not a demographic duty. Choosing not to multiply is not failing society; it is a conscious, responsible choice regarding the quality of human development.

THE ULTIMATE METRIC: CONTRIBUTION OVER COMPLIANCE

The most important question society can ask you is not "Whom did you marry?" but rather, "What are you contributing?". A thriving society needs responsible citizens far more than it needs blind conformity.

Saying "no" to marriage requires no dramatic justification or tragic backstory; simply stating "Marriage is not the life I want" is a complete and valid sentence.

The true measure of adulthood is having the courage to design your own life and own the consequences of that choice. The battlefield is no longer marriage versus no marriage—it is choice versus pressure. You can say yes to marriage, and you can say no. But you should never, under any circumstances, have to say yes to a life you did not choose.

The Silent Struggles of a Father

A father is often considered the strongest pillar of a family. He may not express his emotions openly, but behind his silence lies a world of responsibilities, sacrifices, and struggles. A struggling father is a man who works tirelessly, faces countless challenges, and makes personal sacrifices to ensure that his family lives a better life.

Every morning, he wakes up with responsibilities on his shoulders and hopes in his heart. He worries about his children's education, his family's needs, monthly expeness, and the future. Even when life becomes difficult, he tries to hide his pain behind a smile because he does not want his family to worry. Sometimes, he sacrifices his own dreams to fulfil the dreams of his children.

A father's struggles are not always visible. He may feel exhausted, disappointed, or helpless, but he continues to move forward because his family depends on him. Society often expects fathers to be strong all the time, forgetting that they, too, have emotions, fears, and moments of weaknees. They also need love, understanding, appreciation, and weatinessi support.

One of the greatest sacrifices a father makes is putting his family's happiness before his own. He may wear old clothes so that his children can have new ones. He may skip his favourite meal to make sure everyone else has enough to eat. He may carry the burden of financial difficulties without sharing them with anyone. These small, unnoticed sacrifices reveal the depth of a father's love.

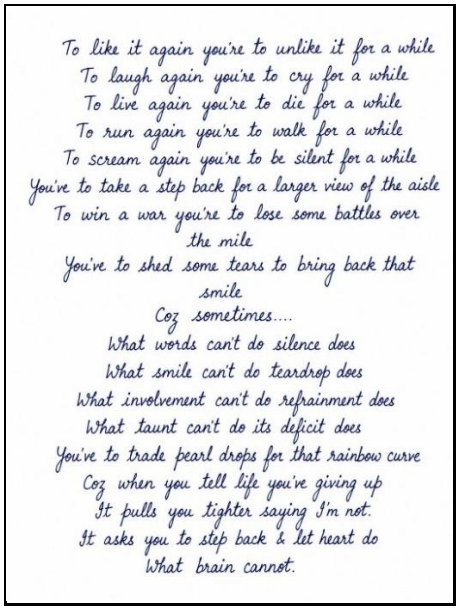

However, a father's worth should never be measured only by how much money he earns or how many responsibilities he fulfils. His efforts, presence, guidance, and unconditional love are equally valuable. Sometimes, a few words of appreciation, a moment of understanding, or simply asking, "Are you okay, Dad?" can mean more to him than we realise.

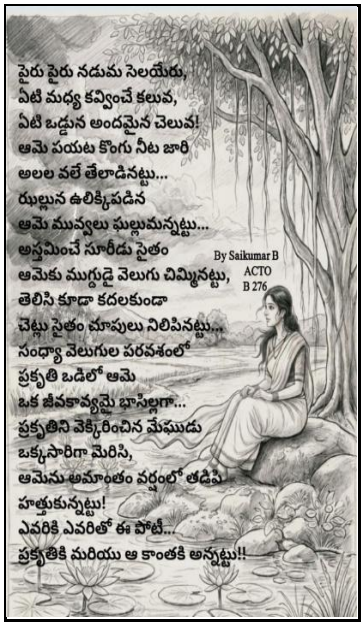

As children, we often understand our father's sacrifices only when we grow older and begin to face life's challenges ourselves. What once seemed like ordinary responsibilities slowly reveal themselves as extraordinary acts of love.

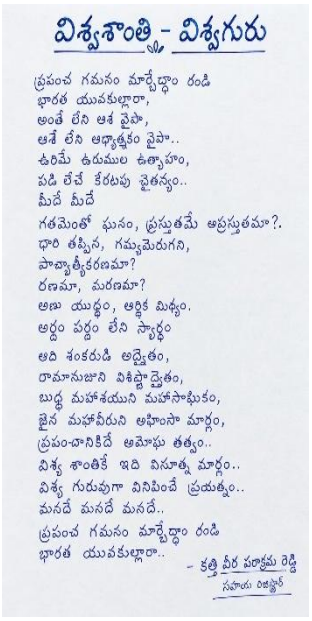

A struggling father may not have everything in life, but he continues to give everything he can to his family. His hands may be tired, his dreams may be postponed, and his heart may carry unspoken worries, yet he keeps moving forward with hope.

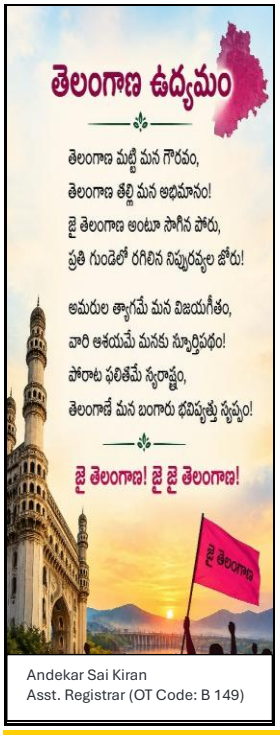

A father's love is often silent, his sacrifices are often unseen, and his struggles are rarely spoken about. But behind every effort he makes is one simple wish: to see his family happy and his children succeed.

సమస్యలు ఎంత పెద్దవైనా... సవ్యంగా, సాంకేతికతతో, కలిసి ఉంటే... సాధ్యమవుతాయి!
1. తెల్లవారుజామున 5:30 గంటలు...

శ్రీనివాస్! అర్జెంట్. 10 నిమిషాల్లో కలెక్టరేట్ గేట్ దగ్గర ఉండాలి. కలెక్టర్ గారి నుండి అత్యవసర ఆదేశాలు వచ్చాయి. డ్రైవర్ సిద్ధంగా ఉన్నాడు, వెంటనే బయలుదేరు!
కొత్తగా గ్రూప్-2 పోస్టింగ్ సాధించిన శ్రీనివాస్‌కి ఇది తొలి సీనియర్ కాల్!
2. 10 నిమిషాల్లో రెడీ!
టీ కూడా తాగే సమయం లేదు!
ప్లాంట్ వేసుకుని, షర్ట్ బటన్లు సగం సగం పెట్టుకుంటూ బయటకు పరుగెత్తాడు!
3. జీప్‌లో ప్రయాణం
సార్, అసలు ఏమైంది? మన్ను ఏదైనా సీక్రెట్ మిషన్‌కి తీసుకెళ్తున్నాడా?
సీక్రెట్ మిషన్ కాదు బాస్... రచ్చ రంబోలా! మన మండలంలోని సరిహద్దు గ్రామంలో ఏళ్ల తరబడి భూ వివాదం. ఇవాళ ప్రధాన రహదారి గ్రామస్తులు దిగ్బంధించారు. కలెక్టర్ గారు ప్రత్యేక బృందాన్ని పంపారు. మనల్ని కూడా ఆ బృందంలో వేశారు!
సీలేష్ (కొత్త గ్రూప్-2 ఆఫీసర్)
4. గ్రామంలో ఉద్రిక్త వాతావరణం
మా భూమి మాకే కావాలి!
కాదు మాదే!
రెండు వర్గాల జనాల ఆందోళన... శ్రీనివాస్‌కి హృదయ స్పందన పెరిగింది.
5. రమేష్ గారి స్మార్ట్ యాక్షన్ ప్లాన్
1. డ్రోన్ మ్యాపింగ్
• డ్రోన్ కెమెరా విన్యాసాలు

3. 2 గంటల స్పీడ్ డెడ్‌లైన్!
• డిజిటల్ రికార్డులు పరిశీలించడం
• తప్పుల సవరణ
• సరిహద్దు గీతలు గుర్తింపు
• 2 గంటల్లో పూర్తి
6. ఫలితం - సమ్మలు వికసించాయి!
కొత్త ఆఫీసర్లు అయినా టీ తాగుతూ, సవ్యంగా ఇంత వేగంగా సమస్య తీర్చుతారని మేము ఊహించలేదు సార్!
మధ్యాహ్నం 1:00 గంటకి వివాదం సద్దుమణిగింది.
7. తిరుగు ప్రయాణంలో...
సార్! ఇవాళ నాలోని ఆఫీసర్ బయటపడ్డాడు. సీటులో కూర్చుని బోర్ కొట్టే ఫైళ్ల కంటే, ఫీల్డ్‌లోకి వచ్చి ఇలా రెస్పాండ్ అవ్వడమే రియల్ థ్రిల్!
అవును శ్రీనివాస్! కొత్తగా ఉద్యోగంలో చేరిన గ్రూప్-2 ఆఫీసర్లు ఎప్పుడూ 'ఇంకా ఏషి చేస్తే బాగుంటుంది?' అని ఆలోచిస్తూ... వేగం, సాంకేతికతకి కొద్దిగా మ్యామర్ జోడిస్తే ఎంత పెద్ద సమస్య అయినా ఈజీగా సాల్వ్ అయిపోతుంది!
