

ECONOMIC POLICY

Foundations of a Welfare State – Health and Education

Amir Ullah Khan
MCRHRDI
aamirullahkhan@gmail.com

Rich man in a poor country

Diversity

- Arunachal

Diversity

- Arunachal

Rich man in a poor country

- The correct answer is that a poor person in a rich country is three times better off than a rich person in a poor country. It is not even close.
- Rich individual in poor country = $3,039
- Poor individual in rich country = $9,387
- Life expectancy – Same results
- The Kampuchean example of solving problems

Policy for the poor

- Health
- Education

- <https://www.hsph.harvard.edu/population-development/indiapcfactsheets/>

Rich countries

- Thailand and Ayuthya - Burma
- Mali and Timbuktu – Mansa Musa – Gold, learning
- Mughal empire – 21 trillion – 18th century
- Nauru – 1970's richest 20000K$ - Phosphate – population 7000

Kenneth Arrow

- Chronic poverty
- Rights
- Entitlements
- The lazy poor

Health

- Polio
- TB

Nutrition

- Wasting
- Stunting
- Starvation!!!

Education

- Drop outs
- Anantapur
- Outcomes – ASER

- The lucky few

Diversity

- Arunachal